Dear Harold:

As you know, I have been thinking in terms of doing some writing. I have your letter of 1971, about the interview with H.L. Hunt. I really need to confer with an attorney about H.L. Hunt's breaches. One of them was the interview he granted to you.

Can you give me a background on your writing career and the books you have authored, and a narrative in detail about the entire discussion with H.L. Hunt, in particular his comments about me?

Last week, Harriet Rubin came down and did a background on the Kennedy Assassination and asked me if I would be on the Mike Douglas show. What do you think?

Best wishes,

Paul M. Rothermel, Jr.
